A CHATHAM HIGHWAYMAN.

Attempted Murder and Robbery By a Negro.

Our townsman, Mr. John Roberts, tells us that on yesterday his brother Mr. Bright Roberts, of Moore county had been to Goldston in Chatham county to transact some business, and was returning to his home near Carabontion when he was knocked from his mule by a young negro, Wesley Guthrie. The negro used a rock which struck Mr. Roberts on the mouth and he was knocked senseless.

The purpose of the assault, it is thought, was robbery. Mr. Roberts is one of the most well-to-do farmers of his section, and he had with him fifty or sixty dollars in cash. The negro who made the assault was in Goldston while Mr. Roberts was there and it is thought that in transacting his business Mr. Roberts had exposed his money to view and that the negro saw it.

The assault took place near Mr. Hamby Palmer's, whose son Hugh Palmer, saw the attack and the negro was frightened away before he could secure the cash, though Mr. Roberts was knocked senseless.

The culprit was chased down and arrested last night by James Poe and Orpheus Dorsett, and safely landed in Chatham jail. Feeling runs high. The exact condition of the injured man is not known. Mr. John Roberts expects to get fuller particulars this afternoon.

OLD MAIDS TAKE NOTICE.

A Chance for You at Last—Watch the Advertisements.

A young woman who held a position with one of our tobacco factories left here last week for Oklahoma Territory where she expected to be united in the inseparable bonds of matrimony to a man whom she had never seen. She expected to reach her destination last Saturday. The man advertised for a wife, she answered him and a correspondence followed. During the correspondence the man stated that women were scarce out his way and finally in a bashful and roundabout way he stated that his inability to procure a better half had led to the insertion of the ad. In return she gave him to understand that her inability to secure a husband had led her to answer it.

He was not long in proposing on condition that she pay her way there and if she did not suit he would send her back. She took him up and must have suited for as yet she has not returned. The man stated in his last letter that if there were any more women here who wanted husbands they were plentiful and anxious out his way.

Better Wagons and Roads.

John A. Young has the most up-to-date wagon in the country. It was on the street yesterday drawn by two horses and attracted a great deal of attention. The rear wheels are about two feet high, four inches thick and are made of solid wood protected by a heavy iron band. The front wheels are the same width and of proportionate height. The bed is much wider than the common two-horse wagon and a good load may be carried. With good, substantial roads two horses can pull double the load and with more ease than with the common wagon. Let our people awake to the necessity and economy of good roads and better wagons. This is the wagon of the future.

The Fight Came First.

Officer Whittington learned last night that there was a negro dance in progress in East Greensboro and knew of course that his services would be needed during the ensuing fight. He went out to be present at the function but he learned that, contrary to the usual order. They had decided to have the fight first and let the dance follow. The fight was over when he reached there, the participants had left and the dancing was just getting in good order. Mr. Whittington returned feeling somewhat outwitted. He had been to negro dances and nigger dances but this is the first dance of any kind he has ever been to where they had the fight first.

Musicians of Color.

Two coons, one a jet black, the other of meerschaum color, were going around to the hotels making music with a guitar and mandolin. They played all the airs of the day and some of other days, and occasionally when a piece that had more dance than usual in it was "struck up" a negro, who was in hearing distance, would allow his feet to get away with him and get to dancing. That's natural, however; he couldn't help it. The negroes were strong negroes, but had resolved, it seems, to go through life without work.

THE WIVES AND DAUGHTERS

Are Calling To Men of Anglo-Saxon Blood.

LET TRUE MEN HEED THE CALL

The Following Letter, Written By a Lady, an Adopted North Carolinian, Rings of True Steel.

Dear Telegram:—When we came to make our home in the old North State among the many things that caused us "wonderment" was the fact that in this town, in this State, a Southern State, were to be found so many white republicans. "We wondered then, and still the wonder grew."

How it is that a white man, born 'neath a Southern sky, reared 'neath a Southern sun, can be anything but a Simon-pure democrat is passing strange to us.

Any one knows, or at least ought to know, democracy in the South means WHITE SUPREMACY.

What caused Southerners to vote against their own interests we do not know. It may be ignorance in some cases; it must be carelessness in others, and with more it is sheer traitorism.

What man of you can read the insulting, brazenly letter written by a negro editor in his Wilmington paper and not feel the blood leap through your veins at a quicker rate? Do you dare let that trumpet blast be heralded to the world as TRUTH?

I read with great pleasure that the farmers—the backbone of the nation—are in this State seeing the error of their way. To the good old farmer who may read these lines I bid you make haste and fight beneath the banner on which is emblazoned in bold letters WHITE SUPREMACY. You have been led astray by political tricksters and bosses with their insms and asms, cheap money talk, and this, and that, and the other, that you didn't half understand; but we give you a watchword: one that you can understand: one that is TRUE. Paste it in your hat; keep it there; think over it well, and when you go to the polls, like men vote to uphold it. Aye, indeed! let your watchword and battle cry ever be WHITE SUPREMACY.

With all our heart we sympathize with the farmers. Born and reared a farmer's daughter we know your worth. You who, of all classes, work harder and get less for your work; you, whose crops are bought and sold even before you run the first furrow to make them, and to you, to all true sons, the mother state has called. The voice of the wives and daughters of your eastern brethren have called to you for help, and dare you not heed the call? Men of North Carolina! Voters of Guilford county! The issue is before you! Acquit yourselves like men!

Even a northerner is surprised when a southern white man votes a republican ticket. Well do we remember an incident that occurred on the train just after the last presidential election. We were speeding through the country at the rate of 40 miles per hour. Before us lay a paper announcing the republican victory (by bribery and fraud). On the seat just behind us sat a portly man with fiery whiskers telling of all the glories that would come to us because of the great news. On a seat just in front of us sat a gentleman with bowled head and thoughtful mien. Thinking he, like us, was disgusted at the sight of a southern man who, Judas-like, would betray his country, we ventured to cheer our thoughtful companion by assuring him that victory would be ours in 1900. With a quick, quiet smile, he replied: "Madam, I am from the keystone state of republicanism and can but rejoice at our victory," but, he as quickly added, "I do not blame you southerners one bit. Were I a southerner, a democrat I would be. My vote will always be to uphold intelligence and virtue—never with ignorance and vice. I am surprised," he continued, "to hear the gentleman who has just gotten off talk such strong republicanism." "Don't let that bother you," was my reply, "he said he was from South Carolina and South Carolina Republicans, in the estimation of their fellow statesmen, are below par. Like they ought to be in all southern states. Let them go with the class they vote to uphold. They are nothing but traitors—every man of them, for by their votes they give their mother state stabs from which it is hard to recover."

We still have great faith in the manhood of the "Tarheels." History will ever record much of which we all will be proud—from Mecklenburg to Blue and Bagley.

The Old North State will loose herself from the infamous gang that now have hold the helm.

True sons will come to the front—

those who have been led astray will be the most valiant fighters.

Men of Guilford county! heed the call of your brethren in the east. Aye! indeed, heed the call lest the awful blight that is threatening their homes shall also fall on yours.

To the great class of working men who have been led astray—to the honest northerner who has cast his lot with us and 'neath our sunny skies found health and wealth—we ask you to pause, give the subject deep thought. You see where your state is drifting unless intelligence and virtue rule.

Your brethren in the east have called for help! Heed the call and at the polls settle the vital question—one that interests us all. No man can shirk the responsibility. What principle can be dearer to you than the honor of your homes? Men of North Carolina, meet the issue like men, or else by indifference or carelessness, "You will build your funeral pile And your best blood will quench its flames."

To the democratic editors of North Carolina we call upon to take up the fight with increased earnestness. From the mountain to the sea shore, sound forth the battle cry. Shame be on the head of any man who claims to be a democrat and yet still remains dumb. Silent! when his state has called. Silent! when the voice of the mothers and daughters of the east have come to him. Silent! when the very honor of his state and home are at stake. Such an one, like Arnold of old, must have his pockets filled with shekels and in the ranks of the enemy a captain's commission. To the editors whose hearts beat for the welfare of your mother state, we bid you stand firm. The best element of your state are behind you. The prayers of all true women are with you. The eyes of your sister states are upon you and their well wishes are with you. Your state stands shame before the people—help to redeem her.

With intelligence and virtue, pure government and honesty in battle array, ignorance and vice, dishonesty and rascality will have to find other camping ground than the Tar Heel state.

We have faith to believe that democracy—synonym of intelligence, honesty, justice, truth and white supremacy, like independence, which please God, shall never die.

A Democratic Woman,
"Cottage Home,"
High Point, N. C., Sept. 29th, 1898.

A JOLLY CROWD.

Three visitors in the City and Two Residents.

Three visiting gentlemen are in the city this afternoon painting it red. They have four of Tatum & Taylor's best horses drawing a nice hack on the rear seat of which are two negro musicians armed with a banjo and guitar. The banjo negro is said to be the "pickinest" thing on the continent and his associate manages to keep up with him on the guitar.

The horses go through the street at full speed and everything in the hack seems to be happy while music fills the air. The banjo nigger seems to think he owns our beautiful city and often twirls his banjo in one hand while he intersperses his songs with yells. He has probably soaked the most corn juice. It is a jolly but orderly crowd however and is causing no one any trouble or harm. They are just "taking in" the town you know.

MILES' PROPOSITION.

Restoring Power to the Major-General Commanding.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Gen. Miles' proposition for the reorganization of the army contemplates restoring to him the power and authority which formerly belonged to a Major General commanding. He is prepared to show by what process the dignity of the office is withdrawn from the military head of the army. Moreover, he has evidence to show that he has been little more than a figure head in some very important matters which should have had consideration.

Want Ports Opened Free.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 30.—The Manufacturers' Association at the Union League Club has adopted unanimous resolutions that the ports in all the territory which were formerly Spanish, but now in the possession of the United States, be permanently opened, free if possible, for entry of the products of American industry.

Washington, Sept. 30.—It is reported on good authority that Governor Roger Wolcott will be Ambassador to London.

THE INTERVIEW IS DENIED.

The Spanish Commission Have Not Yet Talked.

AMERICAN COMMISSION DOTS.

They Have a Suit of Seven Rooms Which Were Formerly Used by the Ex-Empress Eugenia.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Sept. 30.—The Spanish Peace Commissioners have denied today the various so-called interviews which purport to give the substance of their instructions. The secretary of the Spanish commission said to a representative of the press today:

"No member of our commission has given out any interview, and all of that which has appeared in print as to our instructions is absolutely false. We are here defending ourselves and naturally we are not willing that any of our weapons shall be given to our opponents."

The American commission held its usual session this morning. The members are crystallizing their plans and arranging the details of their work. They have taken possession, as their working quarters, of a suit of seven rooms on the ground floor of the Hotel Continental, formerly used by the Ex-Empress Eugenia.

The clerical force of the commission has been systematized and are working busily. The spirit of the press is daily translated for them.

THE SICK IN PORTO RICO.

Ordered Sent North Soon as Able to Travel.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Sept. 30.—President McKinley has given instructions that all the sick soldiers who are now in Porto Rico be sent north as soon as they are able to travel with safety, his purpose being to relieve Gen. Brooke from further care of the sick, and at the same time enable the men to receive the treatment obtainable at the better appointed home hospitals.

These men will be furloughed as in the cases of those returning from Santiago. About seven hundred will leave today on the Relief and Missouri. The officers and quartermaster department having charge of the shipping have been ordered to send ships to Porto Rico equipped for carrying the sick to this country.

Several regular transports are now going to Porto Rico and Cuba. As soon as Havana is occupied she will be added to the points where transports can touch.

PLAIN PINE COFFINS.

Paupers Are More Respectfully Buried Than Soldiers.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Sept. 30.—Rev. Henry Bryan, who has been in the service of the United States at Camp Wikoff, says the dead soldiers are thrown into plain pine coffins, naked, and are marked only with a lead pencil on the box, which is quickly obliterated. Mr. Bryan says that paupers are much more respectfully handled and buried than are the soldiers who die at Camp Wikoff.

Ran Down and Killed.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Newburgh, Sept. 30.—An unknown girl about seventeen years of age was walking the railway track this morning when the engineer of a train saw her and whistled the danger signal. The girl was so paralyzed with fright that she could not escape though she had ample time to do so and she was run down and killed. The accident occurred near Mountainville.

Governor Taylor Seriously Sick.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 30.—Governor Taylor has been suffering with liver trouble for some time and last night his condition became critical. His relatives have been summoned to his bedside.

Refuses to Talk.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Brooklyn, Sept. 30.—Justice Van Wyck refuses to say whether he will accept the nomination for governor, or to talk at all regarding the same today.

What He Stands For.

"No," said the bedizened general, "it is unnecessary for me to make any statement. Everybody knows what I stand for."

"Yes," hissed the aid beneath his bated breath, "the photographer."

"SUCCESSOR" TO MISS DAVIS.

The strenuous effort that is being made to appoint a "successor" to Miss Winnie Davis as "Daughter of the Confederacy" is totally devoid of sentiment, to say nothing of the propriety of the movement. The "Daughter of the Confederacy" was a distinctive title, conferred on Miss Davis by reason of her relationship to the President of the Confederacy and the fact that she was born in the "white house of the Confederacy" in Richmond. No other child was born there. Miss Davis wore the title with distinguished grace; and it clung to her by reason of right and ownership. She is dead and in her grave lies buried the "Daughter of the Confederacy."

Her grave should (and will) be marked as the grave of the "Daughter of the Confederacy," and the title should remain sacred to her memory. It should not be cheapened by hunting up some one else to wear it. No one can take Miss Davis's place in the hearts of the people and the distinctive title engraved on the monument to her memory should also be perpetuated in the memory of her people. The woman who undertakes to wear the title of "Daughter of the Confederacy" after Miss Davis will make a mistake.

The conclusion reached by Mr. J. D. Alfred, of Randolph, a republican who went to Raleigh to investigate matters for himself is the conclusion that will be reached by every white man who desires to be loyal to his race and strictly honest with himself, his wife and his children. Mr. Alfred said he believed the reports in the newspapers about negro rule were democratic lies; but he went to Raleigh to see for himself. He was convinced on the spot, and before leaving the city announced that he would support white supremacy men. We print the letter elsewhere.

The democratic candidate for Governor of New York, Augustus Van Wyck, is a brother of the present mayor of Greater New York, Robert A. Van Wyck. He is 52 years old, and is a graduate of the University of North Carolina. He married a Virginian, Miss Leila Gordon Wilkins, of Richmond.

The democratic convention of the Fourth Congressional District met in Raleigh yesterday and adopted resolutions, but deferred the nomination of a candidate for congress. The convention adjourned subject to the call of the chairman. The middle-of-the-road populists met in Raleigh, yesterday, also, and nominated W. J. Peele for congress. They refused to nominate Mr. Atwater because of his previous fusion record and because, it is claimed, he voted for Jenkins in the recent convention.

"Teddy, the Tax-dodger," who had to hire a lawyer to hunt up evidence to prove that he was a citizen of New York State, is not quite as popular with the people of the country as republican candidate for governor as was Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, the brave and bold, dashing and daring Rough Rider.

A RANDOLPH REPUBLICAN

Who Went to Raleigh to Investigate Democratic Lies.

This morning's News and Observer contains the following letter:
To the Editor:—I have been a life-long republican and have voted and worked for the success of the republican party and its candidates in my native county—Randolph; I have, during the past few weeks, been reading of conditions in some sections of my state, where negroes were said to be largely in control of public affairs, and I have wondered how these things could be true. Indeed, like many others of my party, I have thought they were campaign lies.
I finally decided to investigate for myself, and I came to Raleigh yesterday from my home in Randolph county. I went first to the white blind institute, and I saw there carved into the corner stone of the new building now being constructed, the name of James H. Young, the colored politician of Wake county, as one of the directors. I then went inside and asked the superintendent, Mr. Ray, if he would let me see the official report signed by James H. Young, as one of the committee on inspection of that institution. He promptly showed me the official report signed by James H. Young himself, and Mr. Ray told me that this was the same report which had been printed in the News and Observer and other papers.

I also went into the Wake county court house and saw with my own eyes a negro man sitting at a desk in the office of the clerk of the Superior court, he, the negro, being a deputy clerk in that office who was placed there by the republican clerk of the court in Wake county to succeed a white man. I have seen and heard a good many other things that I never dreamed really existed in good old North Carolina. I have seen and heard enough. I know now that the statements that are claimed by some to be democratic lies are actual facts, and facts that must make a white man stop and think. I have stopped and I have thought, and my mind is made up. I cannot and will not longer lend my aid or any influence that I may have to the support or endorsement of such a condition of affairs in my beloved state. The only way that I can see to prevent this condition of affairs is to vote the white man's ticket—the Democratic ticket, and this I shall not only do myself, but I shall do all I can to get others to do the same.
(Signed) J. D. Allred.
Spero, Randolph county, N. C.

Special Notice.

Proposals will be received by the city of Greensboro, N. C., up to November 15, 1898, for lighting the streets of said city with electricity for a period of three or more years from January 1, 1899, said proposals to be based on seventy or more arc lights of 1,200 candle power. City reserves right to reject any or all bids. Bids or inquiries should be addressed to B. H. Merrimon, chairman light committee, Greensboro, N. C.

In connection with the above the Industrial and Immigration Association of Greensboro urges investors to investigate Greensboro as a place for building an electric street railway and power plant. Numerous small manufacturing concerns want power of this kind. Incandescent lights are wanted. City has a population of over 10,000 and is growing rapidly. Unusual opportunity for those who mean business; no fakirs wanted. Information will be furnished by the I. & I. Association.
